

Mountain Conservation Trust of Georgia, Inc.
Stakeholder Notification/Public Notice

Mountain Conservation Trust of Georgia, Inc. is pleased to announce it is applying for renewal of accreditation with the Land Trust Accreditation Commission. A public comment period is now open.

The land trust accreditation program recognizes land conservation organizations that meet national quality standards for protecting important natural places and working lands forever. The Land Trust Accreditation Commission, an independent program of the Land Trust Alliance, conducts an extensive review of each applicant's policies and programs.

“Mountain Conservation Trust is proud to have been an accredited land trust since 2008. Accreditation is one way in which Mountain Conservation Trust demonstrates to the public its adherence to stringent national standards for excellence”, said George Kimberly, MCT's Executive Director.

The Commission invites public input and accepts signed, written comments on pending applications. Comments must relate to how Mountain Conservation Trust of Georgia, Inc. complies with national quality standards. These standards address the ethical and technical operation of a land trust. For the full list of standards see <http://www.landtrustaccreditation.org/help-and-resources/indicator-practices>.
